Dennis is a former member of some top music bands including Sly and the Family Stone (#1 band in 1970), The Tokens (who were famous for the hit "The Lion Sleeps Tonight"), Rubicon (who closed the largest paid-ticket event in history) and the Elvin Bishop Group. He spent most of his life in San Francisco and Los Angeles in the cutting edge of the music and entertainment industry. He felt he had experienced all that life had to offer by the world's standards but that wasn't satisfying to him and left him hungry for something more. Dennis tells of his long search for truth, beauty and love which took him in and out of most of the popular psychology movements, philosophies and new age beliefs of the last 40 years, and how he ultimately found what he was looking for in Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit and the Bible. See more info at www.ChristianProofs.com.
